MYSORE PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

A copy of Rules approved by Government in Public Works Secretary's No. 2501-6—S., dated 15th April 1933, for the occupation of the Inspection Bungalow attached to the Sri Chamarajendra Water Works at Thippagondanahalli, is published below for general information:—

1. The Inspection Bungalow is provided primarily for the accommodation of gazetted officers of the Mysore Service who have occasion to visit Thippagondanahalli on inspection duty.

2. All gazetted officers in Mysore Service who have occasion to visit Thippagondanahalli on inspection duty are entitled to occupy the quarters, free of charge, and to bring with them the members of their families.

3. Officers wishing to occupy the quarters should give, if possible, 48 hours' notice to the Executive Engineer, Sri Chamarajendra Water Works Division. The rooms will be allotted in the order in which they are applied for.

4. Officers other than those indicated above and members of the public will be allowed the use of the bungalow when it is not used by or reserved for inspecting officers.

5. A room rent of Rs. 2 a day will be charged for a single individual, and an additional fee of Re. 1 a day for each member of his family occupying the same room. For a party using the bungalow with its furniture for a single meal, Rs. 3 will be charged.

For the purposes of the above rule—

(a) a stay for any part of a night, i.e., of the hours from 9 P.M. to 6 A.M. involving the use of a bed-room, shall count as a day;

(b) a stay for any period of 12 hours between 6 A.M. and 9 P.M. will count as a day;

(c) a stay for any period of more than 6 hours between 6 A.M. and 9 P.M. or a stay for any shorter period, if it involves the use of the bungalow kitchen or crockery, cutlery, glass or linen for the purposes of a meal in the bungalow, shall count as half a day;

(d) the use of any part of the bungalow or of the buildings attached thereto shall count as the use of the bungalow; provided that

(i) a traveller merely pitching his tent in the compound or merely using such of the out-houses as are not required for the persons occupying the bungalow, will be charged half the ordinary fee; and

(ii) when a traveller does not himself occupy the bungalow, but only keeps his horses, ponies, bullocks, bullock cart or motor car in the compound, a fee of two annas a day shall be charged for each horse, pony, pair of bullocks, bullock cart or motor car so kept.

6. No one may occupy the bungalow for more then three consecutive days, if the accommodation is otherwise required, without the permission of the Executive Engineer, Sri Chamarajendra Water Works Division.

7. No person shall occupy more than one suite of rooms, if there is any other demand for the same.

8. The Drawing Room and Dining Room will be available for the common use of all the persons occupying the bungalow.

9. The kitchen for high-caste Hindus, attached to the bungalow, will be used by vegetarian Hindus only, and this rule will be strictly enforced.

10. The servant in charge will make catering arrangements as desired by the occupants of the bungalow, and will collect the actual cost; he will also assist in securing supplies for ready money.

11. A printed register will be kept in the building, and the occupants will be requested, before they leave it, to enter in the register their names, the dates of their arrival and departure, and the amounts of all payments made.

12. The occupants will be held responsible for any damage done by themselves or their servants, and the amount will be fixed by the Executive Engineer, Sri Chamarajendra Water Works Division, whose decision in the matter will be final.

13. Room rents will be recovered by the servants in charge and must be paid by the occupants before leaving the bungalow.

14. All complaints regarding charges, accommodation, furniture or servants attached to the bungalow shall be made to the Superintendent, Sri Chamarajendra Water Works Division.

M. G. RANGAIYA,
Chief Engineer of Mysore.
